

People talking on the phone in public is very rude and a terrible annoyance. I cannot imagine anything more nerve wracking for the flying public and its workers than having people around them in an enclosed space yammering on their phones. Please do not allow this change. Thank you.